The lecture programs run for three and a half hours and are presented exclusively by experienced teachers who have years of experience assessing final examinations. The programs are designed to show students how to apply their knowledge of the course in the examination in a way that enhances examination performance and impresses the examiners. Each program will include:

- strategies to interpret questions accurately
- strategies to structure responses in a concise and efficient way
- analysis of sample responses
- emphasis on the common errors to avoid
- tips and tricks to employ to increase efficiency and time management
- strategies to unpack the most difficult parts of the course
- strategies to incorporate relevant and contemporary information into responses.

All participants are provided with notes to complete during the program and there will be opportunities to quiz our experienced examination assessors at the conclusion of the program.

The Q & A Webinars are designed for students and teachers to have a final opportunity before the examination to quiz our expert panelists, who have many years of experience as examination assessors. There will be two panelists per session, both experienced professionals in the relevant subjects, who will field questions relating to either content (e.g. interpretation of key knowledge points from the Study Design) and/or application (e.g. how to effectively apply knowledge when responding to examination questions). The session will run for two and a half hours.

About the CPAP programs in 2020

During 2020, the annual CPAP Exam Preparation programs will be held via webinars in late October. The programs will run for three and a half hours presented exclusively by experienced teachers who have years of experience assessing final examinations. These programs are designed to show students how to apply their knowledge of the course in the examination. This will include emphasis on the common errors to avoid, tips and tricks to employ and strategies to write concise responses. All participants are provided with notes to use during the relevant program and all programs continue to be reasonably priced at only $44 per participant.

The Q & A Webinars are designed for students and teachers to have a final opportunity before the examinations to quiz the expert panelists, who have many years of experience as examination assessors. There will be two panelists per session, both experienced professionals in the relevant subjects, who will field questions relating to either content (e.g. interpretation of key knowledge points from the Study Design) and/or application (e.g. how to effectively apply knowledge when responding to examination questions). These Q&A sessions are priced at $33 per participant and the panelists in each of the relevant subjects are as follows:
